<sup>2</sup> The seizing agency is returning this asset to the Defendant's brother. The government therefore does not seek forfeiture of this asset.

WHEREAS, the Superseding Indictment further provided that, if any of the above-described forfeitable property, as a result of any act or omission by the Defendant, (a) cannot be located upon the exercise of due diligence; (b) has been transferred or sold to, or deposited with, a third party; (c) has been placed beyond the jurisdiction of the Court; (d) has been substantially diminished in value; or (e) has been commingled with other property which cannot be divided without difficulty, the United States is entitled to seek forfeiture of any other property of the Defendant, up to the value of such assets, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2253(b), incorporating 21 U.S.C. § 853(p);

WHEREAS, on May 5, 2015, after a four-day jury trial, a jury found the Defendant guilty on Counts One and Five of the Superseding Indictment;

WHEREAS, on September 13, 2015, this Court issued a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture against the Properties, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853 and Rule 32.2(b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;

WHEREAS, on October 2, 2015, a sentencing hearing was held whereby this Court sentenced the Defendant to 144 months' incarceration, on each count, each count to run concurrently with each other, to be followed by a term of 96 months supervised release, and ordered the Defendant to pay a special assessment of $200;

WHEREAS, in addition, this Court ordered the Defendant to forfeit the Properties, pursuant to the terms of the Preliminary Order of Forfeiture;

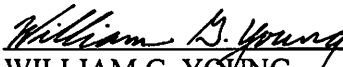

WHEREAS, notice of the Preliminary Order of Forfeiture was sent to all interested parties and published on the government website www.forfeiture.gov for thirty (30) consecutive calendar days, beginning with September 25, 2015 and ending on October 25, 2015; and

WHEREAS, no claims of interest in the Properties have been filed with the Court or served on the United States Attorney's Office, and the time within which to do so has expired.

WHEREFORE, the United States requests that this Court enter a Final Order of Forfeiture against the Properties in the form submitted herewith.

ACCORDINGLY, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that:

1. The United States' Motion for a Final order of Forfeiture is allowed.
2. The United States of America is now entitled to the forfeiture of all right, title or interest in the Properties, and they are hereby forfeited to the United States of America pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2253 and Rule 32.2(c) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.
3. This Court shall retain jurisdiction in the case for the purpose of enforcing this Order.
4. All other parties having any right, title or interest in the Properties are hereby held in default.
5. The United States Marshals Service is hereby authorized to dispose of the Properties in accordance with applicable law.

WILLIAM G. YOUNG
United States District Judge
